Dear Mr. Schardt:

Enclosed for your review is the revised response to the first Office Action on PM1335.

This revised response differs from the earlier draft (forwarded to you on November 29, 1990) in that all amendments which would have replaced the term "flavor-generating" with the term "aerosol-generating" have been deleted, and a section explaining the nature of "flavor" to the Examiner has been added. I believe that this explanation, which was prepared with the aid of publications provided to me by Murphy Sprinkle, should prove sufficient to overcome the "112 rejections.

I look forward to your comments.

Sincerely,

Robert P. Marley
